I've been a big fan of Essential Elements books. I've been studying with Hal Leonard since I was a kid.

Aside from the useful information in the book, many of their books had audio CDs. This is nice for me, because I can't always understand music--even though I've learned to read it--unless I hear it. I understand basic notes, but the more complicated music baffles me in written form, so I do better playing by ear.
